BIG FOUR CONFERENCE ON BERLIN COLLAPSES—Expressions tense, the three western ministers leave the Geneva villa of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko after calling a three-week "cooling off" recess of the Big Four foreign ministers conference on Berlin. Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev brought the conference to a standstill with new proposals that would force western recognition of Communist East Germany in exchange for a six-month extension of Russia's one-year "Allies-go-home" Berlin ultimatum. Leaving the villa in separate cars are (from left) U. S. Secretary of State Christian Herter, French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Federal Aides Seek Accord In Steel Fuss

Informal Approach Made to Both Sides For Compromise

NEW YORK (AP)—A contract compromise in the steel industry—consisting of substantial worker benefits of the welfare type plus a modest wage increase—is being suggested informally by the government as negotiations resume here today.

Four-man teams representing the United Steelworkers of America and the 12 largest steel companies meet after a weekend recess.

The current three-year contract in the basic steel industry expires eight days from now. If no agreement on a new contract is reached by then, 500,000 union members will almost certainly strike in plants that produce 90 per cent of the nation's steel.

The negotiations, which started May 5, are still deadlocked. Although President Eisenhower has declared the government shall maintain an official hands-off policy, it was learned in Washington the government was sounding out both sides on the compromise suggestion.

Everything being done in behalf of the compromise proposal was very informal. But the behind-the-scenes activities of some government officials were increasing as the contract expiration grew closer.

The industry held out for weeks for a one-year freeze on wages and other benefits, contending that this would help curb inflation. The union has been demanding a substantial wage increase—not yet specified—along with a cut in the normal 40-hour work week and other benefits.

Stripped of the fanfare and window dressing the negotiations once more have become a test of economic strength.

The steel industry has given many indications it believes it can outlast the United Steelworkers Union in a strike.

USW President David J. McDonald shows no sign of relenting in his quest for a substantial wage increase and other economic gains. Workers now earn an average of $3.03 an hour.

The steel industry appears adamant in its stand that this is the year to halt a wage-price spiral that began in 1937. Since then steelworkers have received 14 wage increases. Prices have been boosted 12 times.

For the first time in the history of the USW-steel industry negotiations, company executives show no reluctance about saying they expect a strike. They have been preparing openly for one for months.

Steel officials announced their proposal for a one-year freeze on wages even before negotiations opened in New York last May. Customers have been alerted to the possibility of a strike and the industry has been operating at near capacity for months trying to build up customer inventories.

In 1956 when the present contract was signed after a 43-day steel strike both customer and government pressure weighed heavily on industry officials.

Eight Persons Hurt in Odd, Four-Vehicle Wreck Sunday

Eight persons were hurt in a chain-reaction accident on Route 56, about 20 miles northwest of Circleville at 3:05 p. m. yesterday. None is regarded in serious condition.

Four vehicles were involved. The road was wet and slippery, according to Dwight Radcliff, Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff, who investigated the mishaps.

Most seriously hurt is William Wilburn, 21, Columbus. He suffered a possible pelvic fracture, a right hip injury and a puncture wound in his face. He is reported in satisfactory condition today in Berger Hospital.

Radcliff said the first of a series of related mishaps began when a pickup truck slipped off the slippery road and rammed a steel fence corner post.

The truck was driven by Hager Blair, 44, Columbus. He was headed north on Route 56. Wilburn was a passenger in the truck.

BLAIR, ACCORDING to Radcliff, got out of the truck and started flagging down traffic for assistance.

The first car on the scene was driven by John T. Lawrence, 30, Route 2, Ashville. Lawrence stopped his car. A second car, driven by Henry Felter, 44, Marietta, couldn't stop in time and hit the rear of the Lawrence car.

Then, a third auto, driven by Charles M. Lowery, 33, Lowery Lane, smashed into the rear of the Felter car. Radcliff said the slippery, wet road made it nearly impossible to stop.

Six in the Felter car were hurt, along with Blair and Wilburn. All were taken to Berger Hospital. Blair suffered a deep head cut. He is reported in satisfactory condition today.

Others injured were Henry Felter, the driver, abrasions of the left eye and a bruised nose; Mrs. Rebecca Felter, 65, abrasions of the left knee, fractured left kneecap, contusion of the chest wall and abrasions of the face;

Mary Felter, 14, contusions and severe shock; Minnie Seacy, 32, abrasions of the left forearm and body bruises; Pamela Sue Seacy, 5, contusions, abrasions and nose cuts; Billy Seacy, 3, a cut of the head. Felter was transferred to Marietta Hospital. The rest were treated and released.

Radcliff said today no charges have been filed. However, he declared an investigation of the mishap is still under way.

34 Fishermen Lost in Storm Over Weekend

ESCOMINAC, N.B. (AP)—At least 34 fishermen were dead or missing today as searching planes scoured the Northumberland Strait for survivors of the weekend storm that battered the Gulf of St. Lawrence fishing fleet.

Twelve men were known dead and 22 were listed as missing. The Royal Canadian Air Force reported 22 derelict boats were spotted by search planes Sunday along the 30-mile coastline between Point Escuminac and Richibucto. There were no signs of life.

The storm, described as the worst in 30 years, caught at least 50 salmon boats as it lashed the strait between New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. The fleet was out in force to meet the heaviest salmon run in 10 years.

Two survivors were kept alive by an air bubble in the cabin of their overturned boat. Hilaire Gauvin, 55, and Germain Chaisson, 55, both of Lameque, were trapped in the cabin when their boat capsized. Another wave righted the vessel. Gauvin's uncle, Capt. Charles Gauvin, 53, was washed overboard.

Fishermen accused the weather bureau of failing to warn them of the approaching storm.

The Halifax Weather Bureau said gale warnings went out Friday night, but the fleet was out by then.

The storm did hundreds of thousands of dollars damage to boats, nets and lobster pots, dealing a heavy blow to the local fishing industry.

Louisiana Faces Big Questions About Governor

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana, thrown into political turmoil by her ailing governor three weeks ago, faces momentous questions, some of which may be answered this week:

1. Is Gov. Earl K. Long legally insane?

2. If not, can he get out of a state mental hospital?

3. Meanwhile, who is the state's chief executive?

Physicians who visited Long Sunday at Southeast Louisiana Hospital, 54 miles east of the capital, reported he was "quite cooperative and his general condition satisfactory."

Five days ago, the governor, cursing and fighting, was taken to the mental hospital in Mandeville, La. He was arrested near here after he had sped away from a New Orleans hospital.

Dr. Chester Williams, coroner for East Baton Rouge Parish, and a psychiatrist said Long was suffering from paranoid schizophrenia—delusions of persecution. Long was ordered taken to the mental hospital for observation and treatment.

Long, who was on his way to the capital to resume executive powers when he was arrested, has engaged counsel to protect his legal rights. Joseph Arthur Sims of Hammond, La., was named his chief counsel.

Sims, who conferred with the governor for an hour Sunday, said Long apparently was in good health and spirits. He would not say what legal action was planned.

Speculation centered on two possible courses: a sanity hearing here, where the coroner took the committal action; or a court hearing in Covington where the governor, claiming he was illegally restrained of his liberty in nearby Mandeville, might sue for a writ of habeas corpus.

During Long's sojourn in Galveston, Lt. Gov. Luther Frazier automatically became acting governor.

Frazier, who was elected on the Long ticket, said he would act in an emergency, but he would not formally assume executive powers until he got legal advice.

Woman Hurt In Accident

A woman was critically injured at 12:05 p. m. today after the automobile she was driving blew out a front tire and crashed into a tree.

The accident occurred two miles south of Harrisburg on U. S. Route 62. The injured woman, name unknown, was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, in critical condition.

The Pickaway County Sheriffs Department investigated. Only one car was involved in the accident.

15-Year-Olds Nabbed during Theft Attempt

Police Recover $300 Loot from Iron, Metal Firm

Alertness, accurate timing and cooperation by three local law enforcement agencies here early Sunday morning led to the apprehension of two Circleville juveniles charged with attempting to take approximately $300 in cash and merchandise from the Circleville Iron and Metal Co., 619 S. Clinton St.

Apprehended were two 15-year-old boys from the southend. Circleville Police, the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department and the State Highway Patrol teamed up for the capture of the juveniles who were caught in the act of burglarizing the local firm.

Local police turned in the brunt of the work. The burglary attempt was cut short when an alert night watchman at the nearby Eshelman Mill, noticed a flashlight beam in the metal firm's office at 2:20 a. m.

A quick phone call to police headquarters and a radio relay sent Sgt. Robert Temple to the area within a matter of seconds. The same radio message also prompted Patrolmen Wesley Barton and William Goff to rush to the vicinity from regular patrol duty of city streets.

Sgt. Temple advised Goff and Barton to approach the metal office on foot in order not to scare the burglars away. He also slipped into the firm's large junk yard area on foot, after encountering several obstacles in the form of a barbed wire fence and bushes.

PATROLMAN Richard Blaney, handling the headquarters radio, requested aid from the State Highway Patrol and the sheriff's department. Patrolman W. D. Benson, Auxiliary Patrolman Harold Schein and Deputies Robert Hoover and Homer Adams quickly answered the call and sped cautiously to the scene.

Sgt. Temple's strategy to approach on foot paid dividends. Lawmen crept and crawled to the building where they were able to observe the youth's activities for about a half an hour before the trap was sprung.

Sgt. Temple said he attempted to take every precaution in surrounding the area and covering all exits in that he was not sure how many persons were in the building and the general area. The other officers followed his plan to the letter.

At the precise moment, State Patrolman Benson drove his cruiser past the building and the two juveniles, spotting the car, stepped part way out of a door to watch the direction of the vehicle. Patrolman Goff, lying flat on his stomach near the door, rolled over onto the sidewalk and made the apprehension before the youths could make a move to retreat.

There, police said, the boys admitted they had entered the establishment earlier in the evening. They also admitted entering Corwin St. school, pilfering autos at the General Electric plant, and breaking into a soft drink machine at the Pickaway Livestock Co-operative Agency. Nothing of value was taken. The burglaries took place during the last two or three weeks, police reported.

An immediate search of the juveniles revealed a paper bag containing about $25 in change, a pair of brass knuckles and a small meat cleaver. The money bag was stashed between the trousers and underwear of one of the youths. The pair was taken to the police station for questioning and further investigation.

An inventory by Phillip and Julius Gordon, owners of the iron and metal firm, noted that the loot gathered by the boys totaled about $270. Officers said the youths placed the merchandise in two cardboard boxes and a sack which they had ready for removal from the office. Entry was gained by breaking a rear window, police said.

Sgt. Temple said the loot included two electric drills, one case of tools, one electric lantern, 10 bottles of soda pop, several sacks of potato chips, seven sacks of peanuts, one electric heater, six hacksaws, 20 hacksaw blades, six ad-

'With God, All Things Are Possible'

Ohio House Ready for Vote On Proposed State Motto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio is due for a new motto today: For its first order of business, the House scheduled a vote on this Senate-approved motto: "With God, All Things Are Possible."

Eleven-year-old Jimmie Mastornardo, sixth grader in Cincinnati's Hartwell School, proposed the state motto and personally appeared before legislative committees to urge adoption.

The House also slated a vote on measures for state-federal agreements on regulation of interstate highway advertising and for compensation to a losing district for school buildings involved in partial annexation of school district territory. Both have Senate approval.

With most of the steam gone from the drive for tax increases, attention turned to action on spending measures in the Democrat-controlled Legislature.

Senate Finance Committee members hoped to recommend passage of the House-passed appropriations bill to pay for state operations in the next two years. The House approved a $1,808,000 budget.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said enactment is needed before July 1, start of the state's two-year book-keeping period, to avoid legal questions about financing. "I would not like to operate even for one hour without the appropriations bill," he told his Cabinet.

House leaders considered a vote this week on a capital improvements bill calling for an expenditure of nearly 100 million dollars in the next two years, while the Finance Committee studied a third major money bill. That measure would appropriate a million dollars to pay claims against the state.

Action on the three money bills will go far in clearing the decks for legislative adjournment within a few weeks, leaders asserted.

The Senate's "blue ribbon" State Government Committee will start hearings Tuesday on DiSalle's bid for unprecedented powers to reorganize state government. Executive proposals would take effect unless the Legislature vetoed them within 60 days.

Congress Eyes End-of-June Fund Scramble

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress heads into its annual end-of-June scramble this week to pass as many as possible of its big money bills before the new fiscal year begins July 1.

The House already has acted on most of the annual appropriations bills, but many still lie ahead for the Senate. Compromises of Senate and House versions also must be worked out.

Even after other money matters are straightened out, Congress still faces political battles over such major issues as the foreign aid program, an anti-racketeering labor bill, civil rights legislation and possibly some action on federal aid to education.

Threats of presidential vetoes already have forced Democratic whittling of spending programs in such fields as housing and airports—a situation which brought criticism of Democratic leaders Sunday from two liberal groups.

But while President Eisenhower has managed to hold down spending in some fields, the dedicated Republican ranks in Congress lack the power to force action on some of his requests.

Enough conservation Democrats are willing to join the Republicans to make vetoes stick. But not enough of them are available to get the wheels moving on increases in the gasoline tax and postal rates Eisenhower requested.

While he seems likely to get an increase in the national debt limit he has asked for, Eisenhower may have to worry along without any immediate raise in the 4½ per cent interest ceiling on long-term government bonds.

ate Civil Service and Elections Committee called a hearings tonight on a House-passed House bill to permit advance purchase of highway right-of-way land by state retirement and workmen's compensation trust funds. The state funds are those in the public employes, teacher and school employee retirement systems. The Highway Department would enter agreements to buy the land within five years and pay the funds and agreed interest rate on their purchases.

On the House side, Chairman A. G. Landon (D-Idaho) of the Taxation Committee said he expects final action by members on the Senate-approved bill to increase sales taxes about 60 million dollars. He indicated that use of the stamps would be retained despite DiSalle's efforts to eliminate them.

Other proposals up for House or Senate committee hearings would: Provide for gubernatorial appointment of a state labor director at a salary of $15,000 annually; repeal the axle-mile tax on big trucks and substitute a levy on gross weight; require use of "English language on medical and drug prescriptions;" lower the voting age to 18 years; increase school and local government subsidies and ban use of plastic clothing bags.

The House will vote Tuesday on a series of election law changes. One would extend the 6:30 p. m. closing of polling places to 8 p. m. in Cuyahoga, Franklin Hamilton, Lucas, Montgomery and Summit counties. Another would make voter registrations good for four years, instead of two, and allow reregistrations by mail. A third would permit listing of all party candidates on a single line on voting machines, instead of rotating them as now required. All three measures bear Senate approval.

A fourth measure, originating in the House, would require door-to-door registration in all cities of 16,000 or more population and permit election boards to decide on such canvasses for other areas.

DiSalle said he had a letter from the mother of the slain patrolman demanding that Byomin receive the same treatment he meted out to her son.

"It is easy to understand the feeling of a mother who sees her fatherless grandchildren and who has felt the sorrow of having a son taken from her when in the performance of his duty," DiSalle said. "I wonder how each of those mothers would react on meeting one another—each having suffered the loss of a son. I am certain that, regardless of the varying circumstances of the loss of each, that under proper consideration they might feel that society itself was to blame for the loss of the two lives. . . ."

In a new attempt to escape the electric chair, Byomin today filed a habeas corpus petition in the Ohio Supreme Court. Attaches said judges will consider the petition today. They gave no indication when any action by the court may be announced. The petition claimed Byomin did not get a fair trial, the same contention he had made in previous appeals.

After a final six-hour review of the case Sunday, DiSalle dictated a statement of refusal to intervene and personally delivered a copy to the penitentiary Sunday night. He requested that Byomin receive his decision immediately.

It was the first life-or-death decision DiSalle has had to make since assuming office. The steps he took in personally delivering his decision were unusual. And for some years it has been the custom of governors to announce their decision on the day of execution.

"I am forced to assume the position that I cannot substitute my judgment for the judgment of the courts," DiSalle said in his statement.

"In view of my well-known objection to capital punishment, I have carefully considered the matter before me. I have done so with the complete understanding that I swore to uphold the Constitution of the state of Ohio and its laws, not as I necessarily wanted them to be, but as they exist today."

Mrs. Josephine Byomin, mother of the condemned man; his brother, Walter, and two sisters, Pat and Mrs. Ellie Scroski, all of Cleveland, pleaded personally with DiSalle last week for clemency. Court-appointed and volunteer attorneys aided Byomin's defense. Lois Lanker, an employee in the condemned man's home, said she was a trail-blazer for women in the south. "I was the first to try a case before a federal court, and the first to apply for admission to a law school below the Mason-Dixon line."

She enrolled at the University of Tennessee Law School after receiving a special dispensation from the trustees.

Josephine, who has been in practice since 1941, gave up a promising career as a concert violinist to enter law school. "I did it in self-defense," she said.

She was the second woman to become an assistant state attorney general. Her father was Kentucky's first assistant attorney general at the time.

Mom-Daughter Team Does OK In Law Office

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—When a defendant wants an attorney he often calls for Josephine.

Josephine is the junior partner in a mother-daughter lawyer team—Hughett and Hughett.

Senior partner is a vivacious redhead who admits to "being nearly 71." She is Maude Hughett, an attorney for 50 years.

Josephine keeps her age a secret. "It might spoil my chances for romance, not that I've got time for it. I'm too tired when I get home."

The pair share an office strategically located between the jail and the court house. But they never share the same case.

"You know how it is when two women get together," Maude said. "They always disagree."

There were three Hughetts — father, mother and daughter — in the law firm until he died four years ago. Maude has a sister who is a lawyer in Knoxville. Her father and brother-in-law were lawyers, too.

Maude says she was a trail-blazer for women in the south. "I was the first to try a case before a federal court, and the first to apply for admission to a law school below the Mason-Dixon line."

She enrolled at the University of Tennessee Law School after receiving a special dispensation from the trustees.

White Youths Silent as Jurist Reads Penalty

Attack on Negro Coed Labeled 'Horrible'; Appeal to God Urged

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—All four white youths convicted of raping a Negro coed were handed life prison sentences today by Circuit Judge W. May Walker.

Life sentences were the maximum possible under the June 14 verdict of guilty with a recommendation of mercy.

The electric chair would have been automatic if the jury had returned a verdict of guilty without a recommendation of mercy. No white man ever has gone to the chair in Florida or any other state for raping a Negro.

In pronouncing sentence the white-haired 54-year-old jurist told the four he had never imposed less than a death sentence or life imprisonment on conviction of rape.

The four youths paled as the sentence was pronounced but showed no other trace of emotion. Under Florida law, parole after six months but lifers convicted of rape customarily serve at least 10 years before being considered for parole.

The four drawing life sentences were William (Ted) Collingsworth, 23, a telephone company lineman; David Ervin Beagles, a husky 18-year-old high school senior; Patrick (Gene) Scarborough, a 20-year-old Air Force man and Ollie Stoutamire, a skinny, pale-faced 16-year-old high school dropout.

Judge Walker told the four as he prepared to pronounce sentence, "You have been convicted of a very serious offense. It is an offense that is horrible and under horrible circumstances. The court feels sorry for you and for the prosecutrix (the 19-year-old coed). You are fortunate that the jury recommended mercy."

He asked each of them in turn if they had anything to say before he pronounced sentence. Each said "No sir."

Afterward he asked each of the four if they had ever heard of the Supreme Ruler of the universe. When they replied "No," he said he had reference to God.

"He is the one to whom you should direct your appeal. He may offer you some comfort," Walker said. "I commend Him to you as one who can be a great benefactor."

Berger Hospital Patients Are Happy With Pretty Candy-Stripe Girls

EMERGENCY CARE — Mrs. Bell explains the operation of the vital oxygen tank to the girls in the emergency room.

Candy-Stripe Girls, as they prefer to be called, are now working at Berger Hospital. The girls are Senior Girl Scouts, ages 15 and 16, from Troops 787 and 791, most of whom have been in scouting nine years.

The girls have been taking a Red Cross course in home nursing since January. They are under instruction by Mrs. Eleanor Dawson, 226 Walnut St., a registered nurse, who is employed at the Veteran's Hospital, Chillicothe.

Leaders of the two troops are Mrs. Charles Smith, 145 Montclair Ave., and Mrs. Vernon Saunders, Knollwood Village. Mrs. Dawson gave the course as a Red Cross volunteer instructor.

The duties of each girl, who serves from 7:30 a. m. until 1 p. m. one day a week, are varied. The Candy-Stripe girl may carry drinking water, read to a patient, write letters for him, carry food trays, administer simple bedside care or just generally add cheer to the surroundings.

The girls have studied illness and how to meet it, care of the bed patient, food and nutrition, nursing care in special conditions, home emergency treatment, personal and family health and community health.

DR. RAY CARROLL showed films to the girls concerning cancer detection and prevention and also pre-natal care and care of the new born infant. Mrs. Saunders highly recommends the Red Cross course. She said, "motherhood is the greatest profession in the world, but it's the one with least

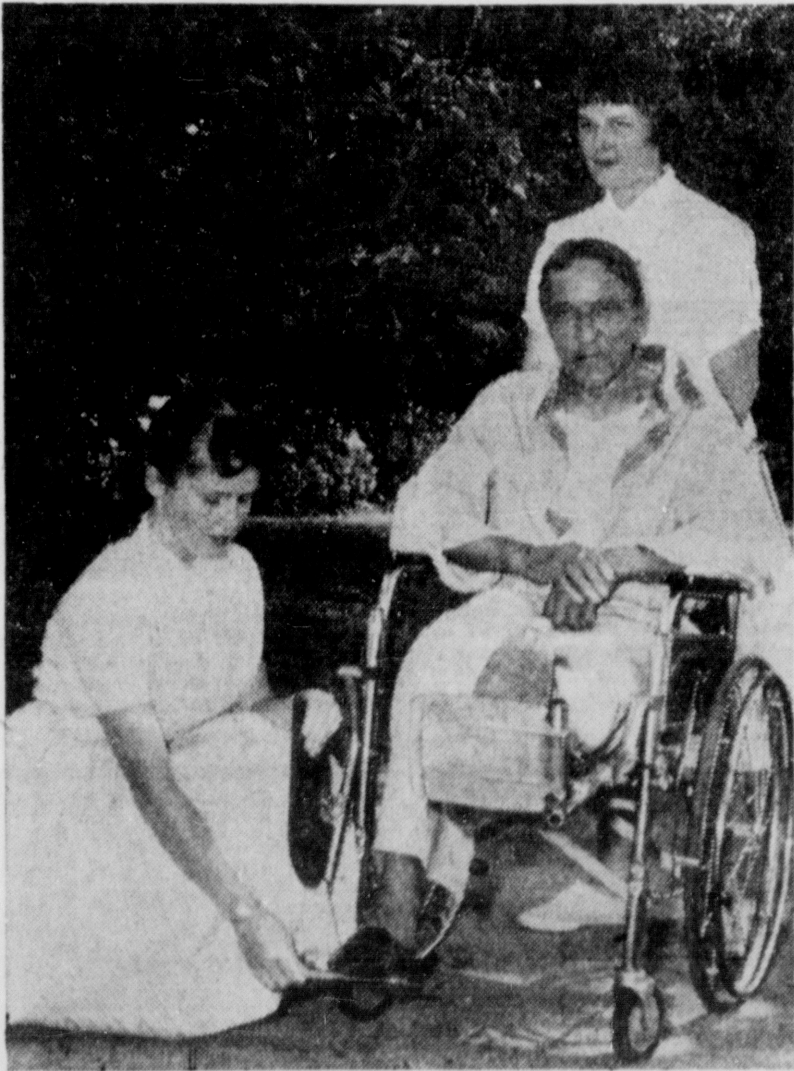

Ohio Farrowings To Show Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sow farrowings in Ohio during the June-August quarter are expected to total 171,000 or 7 per cent more than in the same period last year.

The Ohio Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Markets and the U.S. Department of Agriculture issued the quarterly pig crop report today. They said reports from farmers also indicate that about 159,000 sows will farrow in the September - November quarter, about 5 per cent more than in the same quarter last year.

If these forecasts are carried out the report said, the number of fall sows farrowing will total 6 per cent more than for the fall crop in 1958.

If you should visit Conakry, capital of Guinea on the West African Coast, be sure and take along your umbrella. The rainfall there averages 169 inches a year.

training. I recommend every prospective mother to take the course offered by the Red Cross to properly for the sick and injured members of the family and to keep those in the home well."

Three organizations cooperated to make this course possible; the Red Cross, which gave the instruction; the Girl Scouts, who took the course and Berger Hospital, which gives the girls a chance to apply their training.

This is a new venture in Circleville, giving teenage people the opportunity to do volunteer work. The girls have made their own candy-stripe uniforms — thus the name.

The most important part of the girls' services is, of course, the influence they have on the patients. Miss Ellen Leist, superintendent of nurses at Berger Hospital, says that the girls have rendered invaluable services to convalescent patients. "Their youth and exuberance stimulates and cheers the patient," she noted.

It is Miss Leist's belief that this early exposure to nursing may well be an inspiration to some of the girls to make nursing their life's profession. She feels that the Candy-Stripe girls are rendering a vital service to the community. "Their attitude is cheerful and they show a great willingness to serve others," she said.

The duties that they perform greatly lessen the tasks that the personnel of the hospital have to perform.

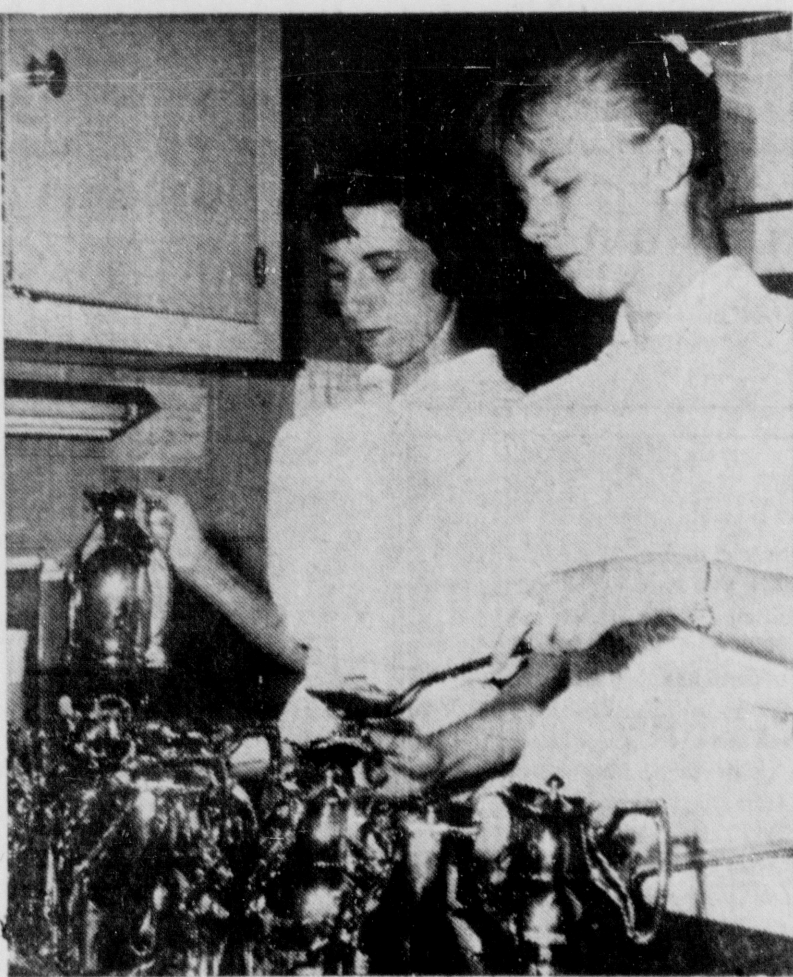

Most important of all, though, is the effect that the girls have on patients. Many elderly persons look forward each day to their visits. They think and remember their own youth which helps take minds off their illnesses, a vital factor in speeding up recovery.

A-Power Airplane Danger Belittled

GATLINBURG, Tenn. (AP)—Atomic-powered airplanes, even if they crash, will be no more dangerous than "other hazards routinely accepted by the public," a General Electric scientist said today.

In fact, he said, the chances of a person being killed in a traffic accident are 80 times greater than the chances he will receive a lethal dose of atomic radiation from a nuclear plane crash.

The findings were presented by Dr. C. C. Gamertsfelder of the GE Aircraft Nuclear Propulsion Department at Cincinnati, in a paper prepared for the Health Physics Society meeting.

More Critics than Models

"One of the great difficulties confronting our young people is that they have more critics than models." This statement by Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, may have hit the nail on the head of why youth problems seem to defy solution.

Secretary Benson made the statement at a dinner meeting at the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. No doubt he was glad to talk, for a change, of the problems of youth rather than of crop surpluses.

Benson's point was that "it is not enough for us to moan and groan about juvenile delinquency and the other problems of youth." All possible adult support for programs such as Scouting are needed.

"Ours is not a boy problem. It is a man problem. Our boys want Scouting. We want them to have it. Our one problem is leadership. Our great need is to provide the leadership to meet the needs of the boys," said Benson.

Those in charge of youth programs agree the problem isn't finding boys and girls. It's finding adults who are willing to spend the time and energy to work with youth instead of railing against it.

Man's Goal: To Outlive Woman

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

One of the hardest things in the world for a man to do is to outlive a woman. Twice as many women as men now live to be more than 100 years old.

The plumbing in your body is more complicated than that in the average city. You have more than 100,000 miles of arteries, veins and smaller blood vessels—all dependent on a heart the size of your fist.

Nutrition note: Only 24 of the 350 known types of shark find human beings particularly appetizing.

A survey showed that only a third of today's teen-agers earn their own spending money.

Americans should be getting smarter. Despite the decline of TV quiz programs, they spent nearly 200 million dollars last year in the purchase of encyclopedia sets.

The major gripe of most secretaries is that their boss leaves the office without leaving word where he can be reached. Other secretaries complain, "I don't care where he goes—if he'd just go more often."

Pianos have about 7,500 parts. More than the average automobile.

Today's best quip: Robert Q. Lewis of CBS says he doesn't know whether rock 'n' roll music is dying—but it sounds like it is.

Parents worry most about their teen-age daughters. But statistics show that a son is four times as likely to get into trouble as a daughter. Tell that to the old man, Sis!

The average rainfall for the earth is 32 inches a year. If it fell all at once, we'd all be thigh-deep in 480 million tons of water.

Many people still firmly believe an elephant drinks through its trunk. It doesn't. It uses its trunk as a straw—to suck up the water, which it then squirts into its mouth and swallows.

Our quotable notables: "A woman," says actress Paula Hill, "Prefers a man with a will of his own—provided it's made out in her favor."

Some folks do love us. Fifty two per cent of Italians, asked in a newspaper poll what nationality they would prefer to be if they were not Italian, responded, "I don't know." But the second largest group—27 per cent—said they would like to be Americans.

A great-to-do is being made in some quarters, about the dangers in kissing. But the American Medical Assn.'s Journal says, "there is only one chance in 500 that the girl or boy you might kiss will have a disease which can be transmitted by osculation."

The giving of presents to one another has become a major industry in the United States. We now give an average of 50 gifts a year each. Maybe we need a national give-nobody-nothing day.

Ain't it the truth?: "When a husband buys his wife flowers," says singer Dorothy Shay, "He's usually trying to throw her off the scent."

How easy can life get in the automation age? A new vending machine now dispenses a carton of 12 squirming worms for fishermen.

U.S. public schools are more crowded than ever. But 13 out of every 100 American children still attend private primary schools.

Marital dilemma: Did you hear the one about the world's most frustrated women? She found a letter she asked her husband to mail six months ago in a coat he had left home for her to sew a button on.

It was Alexander Woolcott who observed: "Many of us spend half our time wishing for things we could have if we didn't spend half our time wishing."

By George Sokolsky

Young People Seeking Hope

A young lady who was the class valedictorian in the Banks, Oregon, High School wrote an essay with someone sent me, as it was published in "The Bradford (Pa.) Era." It is a statement which one hears so often among contemporary teenagers:

"You (the older generation) have given us love, understanding and guidance. You have also given us the most wonderful country in the world in the most enlightened age since life came on earth. For this we humbly thank you. But you have also given us something that is hard to face: the fact that we are living under a shadow of danger."

"Our soft rug may be jerked out from under us at any moment. We may fall so hard that the earth can never recover from the shock. We may witness the most terrible and total destruction that the world has ever seen."

Of course, had these children a true historical sense, they would realize that it was not their parents or their grandparents who created this world of fear and confusion. It is the long history of man's upward march to truth and freedom which has brought on the temporary phase which we now witness.

Tribe Slaps Yanks Twice, Tightening Hold on 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cleveland Indians owned their biggest lead in the American League since May 26 today and they owe it to the determination and the strong right arms of pitchers Cal McLish and Jim Grant.

It was McLish and Grant who slowed up the on-rushing New York Yankees Sunday by pitching the Indians to a doubleheader sweep, 4-2 and 5-4 in 14 innings. The victories boosted the Indians' first place margin to two games over Chicago and shoved the defending champion Yanks back into the second division.

The largest crowd of the major league season—68,680 Yankee Stadium spectators sat through seven hours and 14 minutes and saw McLish and Grant go all the way although giving up 25 hits between them.

McLish registered his seventh victory despite allowing 11 hits in the opener. He left 13 Yankees stranded. Grant hurled all 14 innings in the nightcap, winning his fifth as he yielded 14 hits. He left 12 Yankees stranded.

Billy Pierce pitched the White Sox into second place, with a 3-2 triumph over Boston that dropped the Red Sox into the American League cellar, two percentage points behind Washington. The Senators climbed up to seventh by thrashing Detroit 4-3 and 7-5. The double defeat lowered the Tigers

Frankfort Tops Indians

The Stoutsville Indians were blanked Sunday by host Frankfort, as Eagle pitcher, Blackstone, fanned 19 Indians and allowed just five hits to win easily, 7-0.

Frankfort tallied one in the first and third innings, and then led the contest in the fourth with a three run outburst. The Eagles scored additional runs in the sixth and seventh innings.

C. Horn took the loss for Stoutsville, lasting 2-13 innings. Don Maynard relieved Horn and hurled the rest of the way, giving up seven free passes.

Blackstone issued three bases on balls and chipped with a triple. Mettler had a double for the only two extra base hits of the game. The Indians committed one error.

Stoutsville will travel to Chillicothe Sunday.

Stonerock's Wins 2 from Zanesville

Stonerock's TV pitchers allowed just three hits between them Saturday night in Ted Lewis Park to defeat Ben's Brake Shop, Zanesville, in both ends of a double header, 4-0 and 1-0.

Kenny Reid burlled a one hitter in the first game, striking out nine and walking none for a 4-0 win. Harry Strawser tossed a two hitter in the second game, fanning eight and walking two for a 1-0 victory.

Reid's teammates garnered five hits in the opener and smacked five in the second to back up Strawser. The first game's loss went to Bennett, who struck out five and walked one.

Hardman took the second game loss, whiffing five. Stonerock's scored all four runs in the opener in the sixth inning of the seven-inning tilt.

THE SOLE RUN in the second contest was tallied in the top of the fourth inning by Stonerock's. The local nine still leads the Eastern Ohio Fastball League by one game.

The locals will meet Rockwell's Standard Oil, Newark, at 7 p. m. Saturday on the softball diamond in Ted Lewis Park.

Kiwanis Tags DuPont With 2nd Loss, 11-2

Led by the three hit pitching of Wendell Lovett and the plate power of Charles Spangler, Kiwanis blasted DuPont, 11-2, in Babe Ruth League action Saturday in Ted Lewis Park.

Lovett had little trouble with DuPont hitters as he fanned eight and issued four free passes. Spangler led all sluggers with a triple and a double to drive in five runs.

Kiwanis racked up 10 hits, four by Bill Smith. Losing hurler was Donny Phifer, who struck out three batters and walked six.

Kiwanis finished the week with a 1-1 record, good for second place in the league. DuPont has yet to win its first victory. General Electric leads the league with a clean 2-0 slate.

Next Babe Ruth action takes place at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday when GE meets DuPont in the second meeting for both teams.

Aaron got only a single Saturday as the Braves defeated the Giants to regain first place. But it was different Sunday. Hammering Hank blasted three home runs, each with a man on base, and the Braves pummeled the Giants 13-3 to open up a game and a half lead.

The three home runs raised Aaron's batting average to .391, boosted his home run output to 19 and his runs batted in total to 61. Del Crandall and Johnny Logan also homered to make it easy for Warren Spahn to register his ninth victory against eight losses.

Johnny Antonelli, victim of a five-run burst in the first inning, was charged with his fourth defeat. He has won 10.

Pittsburgh's third place Pirates split with St. Louis, winning 10-8 after the Cardinals had taken the opener 5-1.

North Cagers Win Star Tilt

East Tech Standout Paces 112-92 Victory

TROY, Ohio (AP)—A rangy, well-conditioned North team with a consistent scoring punch overpowered the South squad here Saturday night to win the second annual Ohio high school all-star basketball game.

But the big difference in the 112-92 victory for the northerners appeared to be the brilliant performance of All-Ohio Ken Glenn, the tall and talented star of Cleveland East Tech's Class AA championship team.

Glenn whipped in 23 points to pace the scoring production and played a fine defensive game, snagging eight rebounds and batting away numerous shots.

The showing by the 6-foot-5 phenom easily earned him the award as the contest's most valuable player.

The Yankee victory evened the series at a game apiece, the South winning the inaugural last year, 93-72.

Prior to the start of Saturday night's classic, the board of directors of the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Assn. announced that Troy again will host the all-star game in 1960.

Another All-Ohio player, Dick Reasbeck of Bellaire St. John, was the best offensive gun for the losers with 18 points. Jim Jennings, Dayton Wilbur Wright, and Mac Smith, Bellefontaine, followed with 14 points each for the Rebels.

Trailing Glenn in scoring for the Yanks was Kirk Gooding of Lima Senior with 17 markers. The smaller South squad tried vainly to stay in the game and trailed by only four points, 54-50 at half-time.

But Glenn led a third-quarter spurt that pushed the northerners in front, 85-75 at the three-quarter mark and another burst of scoring early in the fourth period locked it up for the winners.

The game, for the most part, was a ragged affair, played loosely before a sparse crowd of 2,692. Glenn, sought by numerous colleges, said he's still not sure of his plans. Reports here had the Cleveland whiz ticketed for either Dayton or Niagara.

Jennings, Benny Roberts of Middletown and Ron Sabo of Youngstown Chaney reportedly were headed for Louisville. Jim Stone, Glenn's East Tech teammate, apparently will attend either Dayton or Villanova.

Marv Thornberry of the Yankees and Faye Thornberry of the Senators are brothers.

Herald Takes 1st with 15-4 Win Over Elks

The Circleville Herald soared in to first place in the Little League major league Saturday with a whopping 15-4 win over befuddled Elks.

The Herald started off with a five run first inning outburst and were never headed. The Herald tallied in every inning, scoring one in the second, six in the third, two in the fourth and one in the fifth.

Leading the Herald's slugging parade was Bobby Purcell with a grand slam home run in the third inning. The Herald's Jim Wood hit a solo homer in the second inning.

Winning pitcher was Tom Copeland, who hurled two innings, his quota for the week. Finishing up for the Herald were Jim Wood and Purcell.

MIKE SPANGLER was charged with the loss, allowing three runs and bases jammed with Hawks, before he was relieved by Bobby Dean. Dean walked in two additional runs, before retiring the side.

Dave Green replaced Dean in the third and completed the abbreviated five inning affair. Copeland struck out six men, Wood, two and Purcell, three.

Copeland walked two, Wood five, and Purcell, three. For the Elks, Spangler walked three, Dean five, and Green, five. Strike outs were recorded by Dean, three, and Green, six.

Doubles hit during the slugfest were by Copeland, Doug Kiser, David Bass, who clobbered two, Jim Diltz and Green.

The Herald holds down undisputed first place with a 2-0 record.

Action today pits the Second National against Third National at 5:30 p. m. on the little diamond. The Junior Chamber of Commerce battles Circleville Oil at 5:30 p. m. on the softball diamond.

Floyd, Inge Vary Widely In Tuneups

CHATHAM, N.J. (AP) — While Ingemar Johansson played golf Saturday at Grossinger, N.Y., and swam with his fiancée at a plush mountain resort, heavy-weight champion Floyd Patterson sweated out 4 1/2 pounds in the oven heat of an old-fashioned training camp.

The contrast between the training methods of the unbeaten challenger from Sweden and the champion never was more pronounced than it was Sunday.

Johansson finished his boxing sparring six rounds without throwing his right hand more than six of seven times. He will do no more ring work until the fight Thursday night at Yankee Stadium.

Patterson cut his work to two rounds at Ehsan's camp where about 1,000 spectators crowded in and around the tiny gymnasium. Trainer Dan Florio said Floyd weighed 184 1/2 pounds when he started. After the workout, the champ said he weighed 180.

In many ways the scene at Chatham reminded you of the old days at Pompton Lakes, N.J., when Joe Louis' camp drew busloads of Sunday visitors at a fee. There was one important difference. No admission is charged at Patterson's camp. Somebody spread a rumor that there was free beer.

Doug Ford Cops Canadian Open; Finsterwald 2nd

MONTREAL (AP) — The long drought has ended for 36-year-old Doug Ford.

The free swinger from Paradise, Fla., was beginning to think he'd never win another golf tournament. Sunday Ford came from behind a one-stroke deficit to capture the Canadian Open with a 72-hole total of 276, and hauled down top prize of $3,000.

Ford shot a final round of 2-under par 70 to finish the tournament 12 strokes under regulation figures.

Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who shared the third-round lead at 20 Saturday with Bruce Crampton of Sydney, Australia, finished with a 73 for a 278 total.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

A Reminder on GI Mail

DEAR ABBY: I'd like to answer that soldier who wanted mail from home: I know one very good reason why some of the boys in the service get no mail. They don't bother to answer the letters they receive.

I've known mothers who had to contact the Red Cross to find out if their sons were alive or not because they hadn't heard from them for so long. I am as patriotic as the next one, but it seems to me if a soldier wanted a letter, he could write one.

DEAR ABBY: I printed the soldier's letter hoping to remind the folks at home to write to their friends, relatives and neighbors in the service. And I think they should. However, a service man who wants to start up a correspondence with anyone of acquaintance can do so by simply writing the following postcard: "I'm lonesome as all get out. Won't you write to me?" (Wanna bet?)

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for six years and at the time of our marriage my wife wanted a double-ring ceremony, so we had one. I never cared to wear a ring of any kind because it is dangerous in my work. My wife insists, however, that I wear it whenever her mother is around. I wear it but it makes me nervous. Don't you think my wife is a little silly on this point?

DEAR ABBY: Your wife is more than silly—she's childish. It's far more important for a man to FEEL married than to LOOK it.

DEAR ABBY: I am 15, unwed and have an eight-month-old baby. The baby's father and I are very much in love and are planning to be married as soon as I am 16 in November. He is 17. We would have been married sooner but because of our ages the court wouldn't allow it. He also wasn't working at the time. Abby, would it be too awful if we had a church wedding? I wouldn't wear white because I know I'm not supposed to, but do you think a minister would consider marrying us in a church?

DEAR WANTS: Talk to your clergyman; if you are sincere in your desire for a church wedding I doubt if he would refuse you.

DEAR ABBY: Two weeks ago we gave a confirmation party for our son. He received many presents.

My son is now writing thank you cards. There is one guest we can't account for. We don't know whether he gave my son a gift and we lost the gift or not. We just know that there is no gift or card from that person. The gift doesn't matter. Should we ask this person if he sent a gift or not? Or should we send him a thank you note anyway? If he sent no gift it would be very embarrassing. Please tell us what to do.

MRS. F.
DEAR MRS. F.: Don't send a "thank you" note for a gift that was never received. And don't ask the gentleman if he sent a gift. If you have a mutual friend who could find out if that person sent a gift, the mystery could be solved. Otherwise, forget it.

Nation's Business Upkick May Swell into Big Boom

NEW YORK (AP)—The spring upkick in the nation's business showed signs of swelling into an all-out boom this week.

Personal incomes of most Americans were never higher; output of mines and factories held to a record pace.

Living costs crept to a new peak, too, but fatter paychecks for many consumers more than offset the rise.

The spring surge in consumer spending continued without a let-up.

Auto dealers sold 182,100 new

American-built cars in the first 10 days of June—the best for that period since 1955 and a whopping 46 per cent more than in the first 10 days of June last year. Detroit, which once thought the U.S. motor industry would do well if it sold 5½ million cars this year, set its sights on a bigger quota.

Sales of home appliances, recently considered laggards in the fast growing American consumer market, showed surprising bounce. Richard J. Sargent, vice president of Westinghouse Electric Corp., said manufacturers' sales of refrigerators, electric ranges, and automatic washers and dryers in the first five months this year racked up a gain of nearly 20 per cent over the same period of 1958.

Furniture manufacturers in Chicago for the industry's big summer show gleefully predicted record sales for 1959 and a 12 per cent increase over last year.

Most also predicted higher prices next fall, despite reductions by Kroehler Co. and a few other leaders. Gen. Lawrence Whiting, president of the American Furniture Mart, declared: "The boom in furniture sales is just beginning."

Home builders leaned heavily toward optimism this week, apparently having taken in stride a slowdown in construction activity last month. The National Assn. of Home Builders announced after a poll of 500 members that builders generally expect the second half of 1959 to be as good or better than the first six months.

The building boom's biggest obstacle, in the opinion of some, is the trend toward higher interest rates and tighter money.

Henry C. Alexander, chairman of the newly merged Morgan Guaranty Trust Co., ventured a forecast on interest rates this month—and he said they could go only one way, up.

One result envisaged by Alexander: As corporations find it costlier to borrow, they'll be encouraged to raise money by issuing more stock. This would swell the supply of stocks available to investors. A scarcity of stocks for sale at a time of surging investor demand has been one of the main forces behind Wall Street's bull market.

Stock sales last week sank to 13,125,302 shares from 15,468,144 a week before. Last week's volume was the lightest since 12,270,245 shares changed hands in the week ended Aug. 23, 1958.

Bond sales on the New York Stock Exchange declined to $20,205,000 from $30,874,200 the previous week and $26,647,000 for the corresponding week in 1958.

The latest government figures on living costs came out this week — and they showed that it takes about $1.24 to buy what your dollar would have bought 11 years ago.

The consumer price index—the government's yardstick of what it costs you to live — inches up in May to a new high of 124 per cent of the 1947-49 average. Expressed another way, this means it now costs you about 20 per cent more to maintain the same standard of living you enjoyed between World War II and Korea.

Chances are, though, that your income has increased a lot more than 20 per cent in the past 11 years, and that your standard of living is higher, too. Personal income of Americans climbed last month to an annual rate of $376,200,000,000. That's a record.

Rising Costs Still Forcing Newspapers To Hike Prices

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising costs have caused hundreds of newspapers to raise their prices in recent years—87 in the first four months of this year alone.

Some 400 increased prices in one or more circulation categories in 1958.

In announcing the new prices, the newspapers have cited increased costs of newsprint, wages, fringe benefits and various materials and services.

The trend is to more 7-cent and 10-cent papers.

A survey of more than 1,700 newspapers by the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. shows 483 now selling at 7 cents and 170 at 10 cents. Forty-nine cost six cents and eight of them eight cents.

The increases have diminished the number still selling for five cents to 991 — and in the whole United States only 13 still sell for less than a nickel.

The day of the two-cent paper of childhood memory is gone. The last to sell at that price was the Hanover, Pa., Sun which went to five cents last September. Five sell for three cents and eight for four cents.

The newspapers, in raising prices, have stressed particularly their higher costs for newsprint. Higher wages and general business costs such as telephones and wires are among other factors cited.

The ANPA figures show that 165 newspapers have increased their price to 10 cents and 471 to 7 cents in the past 10 years while the number selling for 5 cents has dropped by 527.

The following chart, showing prices and number of newspapers charging them, reflects the change in the past decade:

10 cents	170	5
8 cents	8	0
7 cents	483	12
6 cents	49	0
5 cents	991	1,518
4 cents	8	119
3 cents	4	91
2 cents	0	10

Additionally, three dailies sell for 15 cents—two in Alaska and the Journal of Commerce in New York.
